FOREWORD

If we have succeeded in making this volume of The Torch a cherished and memorable record of our high school days, we feel that we have accomplished our purpose in editing it and that our lives will be made richer and fuller because of the happy experiences we have shared and the lessons we have learned here. As you turn the pages of this, The 1954 Torch, we hope that you will live again the pleasant memories of this year.

Class of 1954

CLASS HISTORY

It was August of 1942 and little boys and girls were answering the beckoning of the school bells. Many of these boys and girls were going to East Spencer School. Yes, this little group heading for East Spencer School was to be the Senior Class of '54. Twelve of this group will graduate with us. They are Nathan Thomason, Barbara Lyerly, Jean Earnhardt, Donald Goodman, Donald Gheen, Donna Goodman, Shirley Snider, Billie Klutz, Julia Nannie, Glenner Burns, Margaret Elliott and Donald Ludwick. The retro guide us through our first year was Mrs. Larry Folger. Our favorite story book character was Epaminondas, and Mrs. Folger read us many stories about him. Jerry Dees joined our small group at the end of our first year.

Soon our first year was over and at the end of a short summer vacation, we entered the second grade, where we settled down and began learning our reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic. Betty Koontz Allen joined us from Spencer this year. Miss Helen Waller was our second grade teacher.

With Mrs. Brockman as our teacher, we moved on to the third grade where we began learning our multiplication tables. Charles Culp joined us there.

Finally we reached the fourth grade where we were joined by George Small. Mrs. Fred Bankett was our teacher. Still more multiplication tables!

We were fortunate in having Paul Smith join us in the fifth grade. Again Mrs. Brockman was our teacher. This year we had our first course in North Carolina History and each of us made a history notebook.

Our class was divided in the sixth grade and as our teachers we had Mrs. Brockman and Mrs. James Mesimer. Poems!!! We learned them all.

Next came the seventh grade and we had as our teacher Miss Ruby Fleming. This year we organized a Citizenship Club, which we enjoyed very much, especially the plays and parties on Friday afternoons.

Coy Misenheimer and Ellen Honeycutt joined us in the eighth grade. Our teacher was Mr. Clarence C. Boyan. This year was highlighted by the Halloween party which our class had in the gym. We all made history scrapbooks and wrote a biography this year.

September, '50! We were Freshmen at last. For years our hopes and ambitions were to be a part of the high school student body. We contributed several new members to the basketball and baseball teams and the cheering squad this year. Mrs. Hugh Sides was our homeroom teacher. Julia Nannie joined us from Dukeville this year.

The summer passed quickly and we entered another year of school- our Sophomore year. Upon returning to school, we found that many of our classmates had left us.

Several of our girls were honored by being asked to serve at the Jr.-Sr. banquet this year. Among these were Margaret Elliott, Barbara Lyerly, Donna Goodman, Shirley Snider, Billie Klutz and Glenner Burns.

Many of us received invitations to join the Beta Club. We thoroughly enjoyed our initiation. Our homeroom teacher was Mr. Thomas Giles.

At last we were "Jolly Juniors." Mrs. Rankin was our homeroom teacher. We had a full year with our Junior play, "Young and Lively" and the Junior-Senior banquet. We financed a banquet with profits from a candy sale and square dances. "Showboat" was the theme we chose. Our class also sponsored the school newspaper, "The Beacon."

And at last in September, '54, we became dignified Seniors. Upon returning to school we were joined by Mary Gardner and Dick Alexander.

This being our last year, we have tried to make the best of it. We have worked very hard on our annual. The fun we have had together this year will long be remembered.

Now that we are on the brink of graduation we look back over our years together and realize that they have been happy ones. As we bid farewell to our school days we think of the poem, "At the Crossroads," by Richard Hovey.

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of men must sever
And it well may be for a day and a night,
And it may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part,
For our ways are past our knowing,
A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart
On the ways we all are going.
Here's Luck!
For we know not where we are going.

Glenner Burns
Historian

CLASS PROPHECY

While we were traveling around the world, we visited a Persian street bazaar. As we had been wondering what had happened to our fellow classmates since 1954, we decided to purchase a crystal ball for a souvenir in order to gaze into the life of each classmate.

This is what we saw:

Paul Smith, slaving away at the Spencer shops fixing a generator on an atomic-powered diesel.

Since Barbara Lyerly has graduated from Lenoir Rhyne College, we see her as a professor at the Hollywood Dramatic School for movie stars.

Believe it or not, Dick Alexander has just been assigned pilot of the most powerful jet plane built by the air force.

George Small has just received a patent on a new tractor which needs only water for fuel and its excellent running condition guaranteed for seven years.

Shirley Snider has just announced her marriage plans to the Vice-President of the United States.

Since Glenor Burns became Mrs. Jimmy Gilland, she has really led an interesting life caring for the Methodist Parsonage in New York and keeping her ten children out of mischief.

Belk-Harry's has just elected a new president, Charles Culp. I suppose he'll enjoy that job so that he can keep an eye on Dot.

A new trailer camp has just opened in Seattle, Washington, with proprietors Billie Kluttz and her husband, a service man she was writing to while in high school.

Nathan Thomason always seemed to enjoy his job at the A & P Food Store and dreamed of becoming the manager; he has just been promoted to produce manager of the new Chicago market.

Mary Gardner has just been selected as the best interior decorator in the state of Florida. Gee, you have traveled fast!

It is the first game of the World Series, so let's go enjoy the excitement between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia with a very powerful first baseman, Donald Goodman, who is batting a .408 clip with the lowly A's.

We see Jean Earnhardt and Donna Goodman waiting anxiously for their sailor husbands who are on sea duty. That's still better than writing letters and waiting, too, like they were doing in high school.

In the huge new Ketner's Store in East Spencer, whom do we see as manager? No other than Donald Gheen! We'll have to agree he worked there long enough for a big promotion.

The USO has really begun to live since Ellen Honeycutt Blackwelder joined the entertainment staff.

Coming back through Europe, we see Jerry Dees on an extended tour, after having inherited a million dollars from a rich relative. It seems his luck has changed.

As we were pulling thru' a big city, we read an advertisement in the paper of a great revival that was to begin the next week at a Nazarene Church and the special music was being furnished by the great song evangelist, Julia Nannie.

Coy Misenheimer has really climbed the ladder of success recently. He is now foreman of the North Carolina Finishing Company. Congratulations, Coy, we knew you were ambitious.

We go past a small white house with the name Allen on the mail box. We soon learn this is the home of Betty and Ervin Allen and their cute little boy, Ervin III.

Donald Ludwick has just become the manager of the National Western Auto Association. We knew he'd make it.

The service of the Bell Telephone Company has improved greatly since Margaret Elliott has joined the staff. We understand, however, that she will be retiring soon to join her husband who is stationed in Hawaii.

We now leave our former classmates of 1954 and continue our world tour. Unfortunately, we are not real prophets but if we were we could really foresee the future of each of you and wish you all the best career possible, a home, and happiness to the highest degree.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of '54, do hereby will the following items:

FIRST: To our parents go our love and appreciation for all that they have done for us.

SECOND: To the faculty our apologies for all the trouble and grey hairs we have caused them; and sincere thanks for their patience and guidance.

THIRD: To the school we leave our memories of all the times— good and bad—we have had during the past twelve years.

FOURTH: To the juniors our hopes for their success next year when they take our place as seniors.

FIFTH: To the sophomores goes our good reputation as a class.

SIXTH: To the freshmen three more happy years in high school.

Ellen Honeycutt wills her basketball ability to Peggy Koontz.

Paul Smith wills his ability to be friends with everyone to Jeanette Wilson.

Jean Earnhardt leaves her quietness to Wanda Davis, hoping she will make an "A" on citizenship.

George Small wills his ability to make A's on conduct to Lewis Mulkey.

Mary Gardner wills her homemaking skill to Nancy Lloyd, hoping that she will need it some day.

Donald Ludwick wills his superlative "Tardiest" to Richard Norcutt, hoping that he can get by with it.

Betty Koontz Allen leaves her marriage advice to Frances Corriher in the hope that she will some day use it.

Charles Culp wills his ability to drive a school bus to Bobby Dees.

Billie Kluttz wills her love for fun to Ruth Meacham and hopes she has as much fun in high school as Billie had.

Donald Gheen wills his superlative "Most Ambitious" to Jerry Payne.

Donna Goodman wills her job as captain of the basketball team to the next captain, hoping she will help lead the team to victory.

Donald Goodman wills his position on first base to anyone who can make it.

Margaret Elliott leaves the fun she had in chemistry class to anyone who plans to take it next year.

Coy Misenheimer wills his job to anyone who can go to school and still hold down two jobs.

Shirley Snider leaves her ability to go on "excursions" to Daisy Kluttz, hoping she won't have as many to make as Shirley did.

Dick Alexander wills his superlative "Biggest Flirt" to Scott Morris, hoping that he has as much fun out of it as he did.

Julia Nannie wills her superlative "Most Talented" to Ann Loflin, hoping that someday she will be a great success.

Jerry Dees wills his superlative "Most Popular" to Johnny Sprinkle.

Glenor Burns leaves the fun she had as a cheerleader to Rachel Snider, knowing that she will have just as much fun as Glenor did.

Nathan Thomason wills his ability to run the projector to anyone who will make good use of it.

Barbara Lyerly leaves her plans for college to anyone in the junior class who plans to try to pass those entrance exams.

Your Teachers Had One Purpose

DUKE
POWER COMPANY
Serving the Piedmont Carolinas

Now that twelve years of lessons are behind, your teachers will probably admit it! There was just one big lesson they set out to teach you — that is, believe in yourself.

Self reliance, confidence, and initiative have made the Piedmont Carolinas one of the finest places you could possibly live and work in. So . . . congratulations, boys and girls. The stage is yours!
